

Barcode Collection

Alessandro Dubini

DESCRIPTION

Barcode is based on a linear design concept that mixes slats of varying widths to create surfaces for a complete family of products. The interchangeable bases of the collection provide great flexibility as they can be fitted with a variety of cushions and accoutrements. From sectional sofas to reclining chaise lounges, create an environment with especially cohesive language. The line consists of a modular sofa, a lounge, a cot, a side table, and a console.

FEATURES

- structure in teak
