

MINIMA

Clay

Marc Krusin

DESCRIPTION

Clay is a table and sculpture born from the encounter between two volumes: the top and the base, which are connected by balance and a point of contact reduced to a minimum. The special lava stone finishing applied manually by a broad knife gives an idea of naturalness and is also suitable for outdoor areas.

FEATURES

- available with round or elliptical bases and tops
- base in rigid polyurethane, available covered with hand-spread material finishes or in black or quite lacquer finishes
- top in glass, ceramic, covered MDF, or marble
- available in indoor and outdoor versions
- "lazy susan" revolving tray centerpiece available on request
