Gordon 496 Sectional

EOOS

DESCRIPTION

Stylish jack-of-all-trades. Gordon, the spacious sofa, ensures lasting relaxation - protecting and supporting at the same time. This extension to the range of Gordon sofas reveals its charms which are surprisingly new and yet somehow familiar: this corner configuration is large enough when you have guests and at the same time so incredibly comfortable when you just want to put your feet up on your own. Protecting and supporting at the same time: the high back with a slim-line back shield. The soft cushions in front of it guarantee constantly comfortable sitting. The designers deliberately opened up the backrest. Practical – because your glass of wine is safe on the side table and your Sunday paper is always to hand. A place to come home to – offering well-deserved peace and quiet and amazing comfort. Gordon is already available as a single sofa and as a récamière. The spacious corner version is a further design option in the extensive range.
