Draped Chair

Front

DESCRIPTION

Fabric softly resting on a bucket seat with a wooden base rises up with graceful folds to delineate the armrests and the back, rendered unusual by a light asymmetry, like petals moved by a delicate puff of wind. From the tradition of covering ordinary chairs in fabric for banquets and special occasions, a very comfortable yet very light in shape upholstered chair is born. Covered in fabric, with a base in natural or red, black and white stained ash, Draped Chair is a project which suggests sobriety, elegance but also unpredictability.
