Leadchair Management Soft

EOOS

DESCRIPTION

The successful program is being expanded: Leadchair Management now also comes with soft upholstery – and relaxed, casual covers. For the first time, the chair can be covered in a particularly large selection of fabrics. The existing functionality is paired with a softer, more informal look. The new appearance opens up completely new use areas. Whether in a contemporary corporate office or a private office at home, our working culture is changing, and so is our furniture. Anywhere: The synchronized mechanism offers comfortable seating even during long and intense conversations.
