Makura

Piero Lissoni

DESCRIPTION

The textile bed Makura interprets a new conception of domestic warmth, among rationality and sensuality. Suspended from the floor, Makura has a cozy and inviting shape thanks to the sinuous and wrapping headboard and to the presence of comfortable removable pillows. The attention to details that characterizes Porro products is found in the smooth curve that connects the headboard with the structure. The covering of the structure can be realized in all the fabrics of our collection or in leather or eco-leather.
