DESCRIPTION

The quality of the materials and finishes make this model a symbol of "tailored" perfection and comfort. TAILOR's large, slightly tilted cushions offer comfortable and welcoming support. The linear shape of this sofa allows it to adapt to a variety of settings, lending its innate elegance to the room. In this range, ALIVAR offers sofas in a variety of sizes, corner sections, end sections, chaise longue, daybed and footstool, giving you the opportunity to build your own TAILOR furniture depending on your needs.

Newly launched products in the collection also include a wide armchair with an enveloping seat to be used on its own or together with other modules from the range for a complete living area. TAILOR is accessorized with a multifunctional cushion that may be used as a head or backrest.
